Happy Father's Day

The idea for creating a day for children to honor their fathers began in Spokane, Washington. A woman by the name of Sonora Smart Dodd thought of the idea for Father's Day while listening to a Mother's Day sermon in 1909.

Having been raised by her father, William Jackson Smart, after her mother died, Sonora wanted her father to know how special he was to her. It was her father that made all the parental sacrifices and was, in the eyes of his daughter, a courageous, selfless, and loving man. Sonora's father was born in June, so she chose to hold the first Father's Day celebration in Spokane, Washington on the 19th of June, 1910.

In 1926, a National Father's Day Committee was formed in New York City. Father's Day was recognized by a Joint Resolution of Congress in 1956. In 1972, President Richard Nixon established a permanent national observance of Father's Day to be held on the third Sunday of June. So Father's Day was born in memory and gratitude by a daughter who thought that her father and all good fathers should be honored with a special day just like we honor our mothers on Mother's Day

Hello My dear Friends,

I want to share a joyous event in my life—my oldest daughter, Meagan graduated Barnard College this May. It has been tough four years for my family and I am amazed how well she continued to do with her studies and finally make it as bachelors degree holder from a very prestigious school. She is an incredibly smart and resilient person, and I see this accomplishment as a great stepping stone for her to becoming a very focused individual. Of course she is still my little girl, but now I can see she is really an adult with ambition she always possessed placed in a disciple she loves. I will miss her once she continues on to work as paralegal next year., but I know she is a good kid and will take of her father when the time comes. Please join me in my celebration of my daughter's graduation from college—nothing makes a father more proud or happy.

My Daughter, Meagan.

Best Wishes,

John McElroy,

Allrecipes.com Recipe of the Month—Oven Baked Fried Chicken

Ingredients

- 1 (2 to 3 pound) whole chicken, cut into pieces
- 1 cup dried bread crumbs
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1 cup mayonnaise

Directions

1. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C).
2. In a medium bowl or gallon size resealable plastic bag, mix together the bread crumbs, garlic powder, salt, pepper, thyme and paprika.
3. Mix mayonnaise with about 1/3 cup of milk or water, so it doesn't get clumpy and coats the chicken evenly. Coat the chicken pieces with mayonnaise. Place chicken pieces in bowl/bag with bread crumb mixture and coat/shake until well coated. Place chicken pieces in a lightly greased 9x13 inch baking dish and bake for 45 minutes or until juices run clear. For crispy chicken put it onto cookie cooling sheet when baking.
